

Mr William L. Gerrish
Saco.
Maine

Tuesday Morning

My dear Will:

I have just had your letter, and I will leave Portland for Saco tomorrow (Wednesday) at 5.15 P.M.

I have been expecting a word from you for some days, and I was thinking you might be sick.

I do not know how Bina will get on without me. Did I tell you Fred has a crow in the Thurston's cage. I never saw one before.

7.
Friday morning. Went down to post this in Portland.

Mother

Aunt Sarah is rather nervous about my going, and wishes she could go too.

I wish you could see how comical Jack is with the coon. He thinks he owns him - and objects
if any body meddles with the cage.

I would start to-day
if I thought you could get this letter in time.

I am afraid we shall have a storm tomorrow.

However if the storm should be very bad on Wednesday,
I will go with you on
